What's on the North Dakota Driver's License Test?

The North Dakota driver's license test consists of two parts: a written test and a road test. The written test covers a variety of topics, including:

- Road signs and traffic laws

- Defensive driving techniques
- Vehicle maintenance and safety
- Alcohol and drug awareness

The road test evaluates your ability to safely operate a motor vehicle. You'll be asked to perform a variety of maneuvers, such as:

- Starting and stopping
- Turning
- Backing up
- Parallel parking

How to Prepare for the North Dakota Driver's License Test

The best way to prepare for the North Dakota driver's license test is to study the North Dakota Driver's Manual and take practice tests. Our practice tests are designed to be as close to the real exam as possible, so you can be confident that you're getting the best possible preparation.

Here are some tips for taking our practice tests:

- Take the tests in a quiet place where you won't be interrupted.
- Read the questions carefully and make sure you understand what they're asking.
- Don't guess. If you don't know the answer to a question, skip it and come back to it later.

- When you're finished, review your answers and make sure you understand why you got each question right or wrong.
